

pHoenix

M E T E R

The pHoenix Meter is a convenient, hand-held, syringe-style meter for quick and accurate measurement of conductivity, temperature and pH. The compact size is easy to use and stores easily when not in use. The easy to follow calibration guide and one touch calibration buttons give you added assurance that the readings on the pHoenix meter are accurate and reliable. The syringe-style design allows for you to gather a sample directly from a sample port on the dialysis machine saving you time.

- Verification of three crucial treatment parameters helps to ensure safe, optimal dialysis therapy for your patients
- Three instant readings in one easy step saves valuable time
- Hold feature freezes readings on the digital display for easy recording
- Advanced pH technology eliminates the need for testing with pH paper
- Auto-ranging feature automatically selects the proper conductivity range for measurement of various solutions
- Push-button calibration is fast and easy

Pretreatment Verification

FDA Quality Assurance Guidelines recommend that the conductivity, pH and temperature of the final dialysate are checked with an independent reference meter before every treatment. These readings should be documented on the patient's daily dialysis record.
